

Saddle MULE DAYS Jake Clark's

Auction Information Sheet

PRIVATE SALES: Absolutely no private sales in the yards before and/or after the auction. Management feels this is unfair to the buyers who are in the bleachers. All mules brought to the sale must be consigned and go through our auction ring.

CATALOGUED MULES:

- Consignor grants to Jake Clark's MULE DAYS the exclusive right to sell consigned mule(s).
- Consignments will be accepted on a first come first serve basis up to a maximum of 100 mules.
- Generally, NO mules under 5-years-old will be allowed in the auction.
- All sale mules are required to be in the trail course on Friday or you will not be allowed to sell on Sunday.

Jake Clark reserves the right of refusal on all Mules not meeting the Select Saddle Mule Auction Standards of Quality, this can include banning from the sale. Mules must have photo, consignment sheet and fees paid to be accepted.

PROPER PAPERWORK to enter sale premises: All mules must have a coggins test current within six months of sale date. All out of state mules must have current Health Papers. Brand inspections must accompany mules from Brand States as well as all mules in Wyoming (out of Park County). NO EXCEPTIONS, PLEASE.

MULE COMMISSION: There will be a consignment fee of $125 per mule. (This fee shall include one stall, per consigned mule.) All catalogued mules not selling or not showing will be charged $100.00 no-sale/no-show fee. An 8% commission will be charged on all sale mules. Animals that are rejected by the buyer because they are misrepresented in the ring will be charged 8%, same as if sold. There will be no substitutions of mules after catalogue has gone to press. Jake Clark will check these animals and will make the final determination whether there was misrepresentation. All mules will be charged a $10.50 brand inspection fee by state law.

GUARANTEE: Each Mule will be guaranteed sound by the seller. If the mule is not considered sound, the buyer has until June 21, 2010, at noon to have Jake Clark and Jake's veterinarian inspect the mule. Jake Clark will make the determination as to soundness of the mule. If the mule is considered unsound, the buyer will be returned his purchase price, less fees. The seller of an unsound mule will not be paid for the mule, but will be responsible for any fees in conjunction with sale fees. The buyer(s) will also be responsible to pick up his/her mule by June 21, 2010, at 5 p.m. or a daily stall and feed fee will be due. Each consignor will be totally responsible for other guarantees they make on their animals. The guarantees of each animal will be made only from the auction block while the animal is being sold. Absolutely no guarantee or warranty will be expressed or implied by the auctioneers or ring men. If you're not happy with these guarantees, please do not consign your mule to our sale.

WARRANTY: The buyer assumes full ownership and responsibility of the animal from the time it is sold in the Auction ring and is responsible for proper feed and care.

CONSIGNORS' CHECKS: All consignors' checks will be mailed out within 10 business days of Auction date.

CHECK-IN: All mules must be checked in by, Thursday, June 17, 2010, at 5:00 p.m. Office Check in time is Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. The earlier your mules are in their stalls, the sooner potential buyers can see them.

LOADING OUT: Buyers must have a release from the office for all load outs. Trucker and load out man must sign all load out slips. Brand Inspector on sight on sale day. All mules must be removed from grounds by June 22, 2010, at 9 a.m. or make other arrangements with Jake Clark.

NOTICE: Please keep all dogs leashed while on Jake Clark's Mule Day's and Auction grounds.

LIABILITY: Buyers, sellers and spectators are cautioned to exercise care while attending the sale and enter the premises at their own risk. Jake Clark's Mule Day's and Auction shall not be liable for injuries sustained by anyone attending Jake Clark's Mule Days Activities. Children under 12 years of age must be accompanied by their parents.
